N.A.S.C. BOARD MEETING

A meeting of the association's Board was held at the Statler Hotel, nday, September 30th. Present beside the officers, board members, and : various committee chairmen, were representatives of a majority of the mber clubs. It was a very well attended meeting. From the reports of : committee chairmen, the Eighth Annual Convention to be held at the tler, January 30, 31 and February 1 and 2, is all set.

An unusually large number of applications for bourse space have been ceived from all parts of the country. Richard Goodson, bourse chairman, orted that allocations to 83 dealers already have been made – which is pacity. He expressed his regrets that so many applications from other ding dealers cannot be accepted.

It is understandable that such a situation prevails, since the conven- ns of our association, in the comparably short span of its existence, has nsistently excelled as an attraction to numismatists. The association's id progress in becoming a pillar in the numismatic field is attributable diligence and hard work, which always have been ingredients of success.

Abe Kosoff, one of the country's leading numismatists, will conduct : auction.

The tickets for the banquet to be held on the Saturday of the conven- n have been printed. According to the report of our banquet chairman, win Borgolte, 75 per cent of these already have been reserved.

The Board meeting which lasted the better part of the afternoon, con- dered and discussed the many operations that go into making a conven- n, made additional appointments to complete the convention personnell, d at adjournment had about everything ready to go. One more meeting to up any loose ends will be held before the convention opens.

N.A.S.C. CONVENTION EXHIBIT RULES

Mrs. Pauline D. Ney, exhibit chairman, cordially invites everyone interested in numismatics to join this great event. LOS ANGELES COIN CLUB HEARS THE MISSION MEDAL STOR

Numismatic History was made at a recent meeting of the Los Angele Coin Club when Joseph M. Mirkovich of North Hollywood Stamp and Coin displayed the defaced dies of the Junipero Serra, first of the Mission Medals. Mirkovich, originator and producer of the Mission Medal series, was guest speaker at the meeting and told nearly 400 collectors of the Historical background of the medal and the value of the California Missio Mirkovich brought out interesting political points in which the Missions were involved. King Charles of Spain was worried about the Czarist Russian Colonization of the Pacific Coast in the new world. Fray Junipe Serra was given the responsibility to journey to this new world and procla the land in the name of God and the King of Spain, thereby indicating the existence of conflict with eastern Europe 200 years ago. The Missions played an important part in this political land grab which helped shape th position of the United States today.

Mirkovich was so informative that for 2 hours after the meeting ended he was asked a multitude of questions concerning the Missions themselve as well as the process of creating a medal. Mirkovich displayed, along with the defaced dies, original drawings by Maria Altobelli Abondolo, wh has been retained to design the complete Mission Medal series. The sculptor of the Mission Medals is Cataldo Papaleo, internationally known in his field of arts.

"The Mission Medals are unique in the field of medals, since they ar the first to employ the proof surface, serially numbering both the silver ar bronze medals, and the first photographic evidence of defaced dies to be publically displayed," Mirkovich concluded.

A LOT OF THINGS HAVE BEEN BEEN USED AS MONEY

The Worcester Gazette of October 13, 1791, printed at Worcester, Massachusetts, carried the following demand by the publisher:

> "Those persons who are indebted to the Printer of this paper, and will make payment in W O O D, in this and the coming week, it will be received in lieu of CASH, but not unless it is brought within the time mentioned. Those who engage to pay WOOD for Newspapers, and have neglected it, are hereby informed that unless they bring it in immediately it will not be received, and nothing but CASH will answer."

In the New-Haven (Conn.) Gazette, of September 30, 1784, there appears a story about a man who was robbed of 150 half johannes, 41 English guineas and 20 half guineas.

Another item, in the same newspaper, is a merchant's advertisement in which he offers various articles for sale, and at the bottom of the ad is the notation:

> "N.B. Pot-ash and Flax-Seed will be received in payment for any of the above articles."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN and ERNIE HOOD

Ernie Hood, past president of the Culver City Coin Club, previewed creation of his Lincoln Memorial at a recent meeting of the Culver City n Club. Since that time it has been displayed at banks, and at the coin p of Mrs. Pauline Ney.

This Lincoln Memorial replica, a numismatic masterpiece is constructed se to scale of 400 pieces of white opaque plastic and 8,650 uncirculated coln cents. Forty-four columns of clear plastic tubes filled with cents nade the Memorial. At the top, above the columns, and between the ividual cents are engraved the names of the 36 states which were in Union in Lincoln's time. Then under the cents at the top center section engraved the names of the 48 states that were in the Union at the time Memorial in Washington, D. C. was built. Ernie's replica measures e feet at the base and 28 inches in width. Hood estimates it took about hours to build.

In 1961, Hood created a House of Lincoln, representing Lincoln's cabin. It consisted of 9,600 uncirculated cents which were contained lear plastic tubes, and put together to simulate logs. This initial outnding creati on won for Hood a California State Numismatic Association sidential citation. This first Hood creation was purchased by the Ripley ieve It or Not Museum at St. Augustine, Florida, where it is now on manent display. It is reported that Ripley Enterprises hope to acquire latest Hood creation for either it's Times Square Museum in New York , or for their newest one being built in Niagara Falls.

A chance for many numismatists to see this historic work of art, and tory, will be afforded them at the NASC Convention at the Statler Hotel, uary 30th and 31st and February 1st and 2nd, 1963.

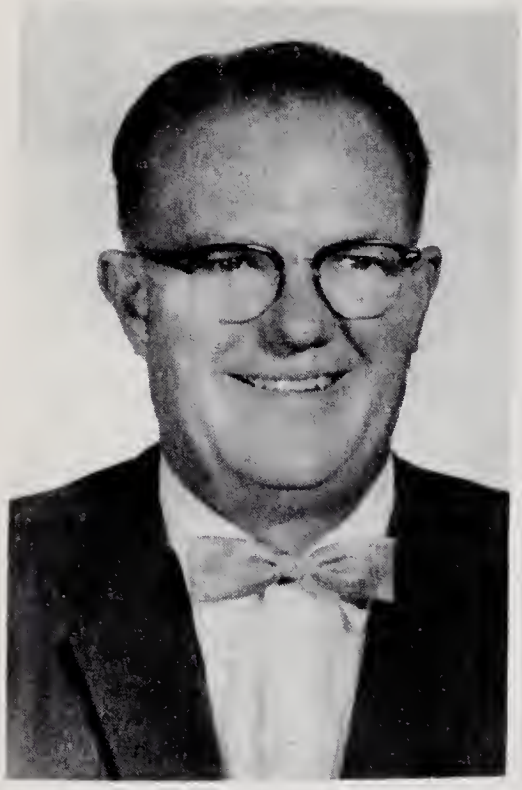
DICK GOODSON HONORED



In appreciation for his services to the Los Angeles Coin Club and Numismatics in the Southern California area, Richard P. "Dick" Goodson was awarded an Honorary Life Membership by the club President, Walter T. Snyder.

Goodson became actively interested in Numismatics early in 1954, and affiliated with the Los Angeles Coin Club as Member No. 456 (his first clin club membership). He has served the club in the offices of 2nd Vice President; 1st Vice President; President, and as a member of the Board of Governors for several terms. He served as President in 1958 when the Los Angeles Coin Club was host club to the American Numismatic Association Convention in Los Angeles.

When the Numismatic Association of Southern California was organized, he affiliated as a Charter Member, and has served this association as a committee chairman, officer or board member since 1957. During his year as President – 1961-62, he acted as General Chairman of the "Lucky Seventh" Convention held in Los Angeles in February 1962. The N.A.S.C. Quarterly (January 1962) said, "Our President, Dick Goodson, has been the guest speaker at 27 different clubs during 1961." He is serving N.A.S.C. as a Board Member and Bourse Chairman for the coming 1963 Convention to be held in Los Angeles.

Other Numismatic services and affiliations include:

President, Torrance Coin Club, 1961 and 1962 (Charter Member)
Charter Member: Culver City Coin Club – Downey Coin Club
Pico-Rivera Coin Club – Pillar's Limited
Member: California State Numismatic Association
Canadian Numismatic Association (3203)
Japanese-American Numismatic Society (No. 56)
Southern California Exonumist Society (No. 123)
American Numismatic Association (No. 23689)

Dick could never be placed in the category of "merely a joiner". He has be an active worker in all the organizations; always willing to lend a helping hand the formation of new clubs, as a speaker, auctioneer, or any job that needed to done. He is always eager to help the new collector, with emphasis on the advice that anyone who desires to become a Numismatist must become a student and research the material he has in his collection. He has urged collectors to displ in the local clubs and convention exhibits, not with the thought of winning an award, but for the educational benefits to be derived from this experience.

In closing, President Walter T. Snyder, called on Murray G. Singer, close friend and associate of Dick's to make the presentation of the Honorary Life Membership Card.

E $100 TREASURY NOTE.

above is a representation of the One Hun- ollar Treasury Note. It is of the same size, close a fac-simile as can be made on wood, the same time be adapted to the rapid print- our ten-cylinder press. The original note, er, is of the finest artistic finish, and in olors, viz.: The large outline "C" behind ed States," also the figures "$100" in tablet h lower corner, are printed in green; the , lettering, portrait of General Scott, and all upons, are all in black ink. The name and ures on the above are, of course, fictitious, been put in by the wood engraver merely w the general appearance of filling up. The of the note is printed in green, with its t very beautifully expressed in geometrical work and figures. On one end of the back the indorsement, and on the other end the f interest per day, viz.: 2 cents per day on 100 note. The public will perceive that the ns are numbered and dated to expire every months, and can be readily cut off and pre- l to the nearest branch office for payment at nes of maturity. The various denominations asury notes, bearing 7 3-10 per cent. interest, are now being signed at Washington, and will be issued to the public in a few days. They are as follows: $50, $100, $1,000, and $5,000. In the meanwhile, subscriptions may be received at the office of Mr. John J. Cisco, Assistant-Treasurer of the United States, No. 32 Wall street, or by any of the city banks. The $5, $10, $20 on demand notes, without interest, are already in circulation, but have not yet reached the ordinary channels of trade. The style and finish of each denomination is different, therefore the above is a representation of the $100 only. The coupons, however, are attached to all the denominations in the same manner, but the interest is specified according to the amount of the face of the note. The notes are all executed by the American Bank Note Company, and embrace the most perfect security against counterfeiting or alterations. They are also rendered anti-photographic by the use of a patent indestructible green colored ink, of which the company have an exclusive use. The Associated Banks of New-York have made arrangements so that electrotypes of the above plate may be had by all other newspapers, at the cost price of $2, upon applying to A. H. Jocelyn, 60 Fulton street, New-York.

bove news item which appeared in the September 14, 1861 issue of ew York World was presented for discussion at a recent meeting of ociety For International Numismatics, by Hal Woolway, a recognized rity on paper money.

LET'S GET ON THE BALL

At the present time we are receiving the above N.A.S.C. member-club publications. They are evidence of added work by these clubs in an effort to be of service to their members. It is one of the best known methods of communicating the club's doings, maintaining interest, and informing those who will read them. Other clubs which issue bulletins monthly, or at other times are invited to send a copy to the editor.

A committee has been appointed by the Board of Governors to resolve the matter of honoring, each quarter year, the member-club which provides the best summation of the club's activities for the preceding three months and sends this summation to the editor for publication in the Quarterly. These summations are due not later than the 15th day of January, April, July and October. In determining the quarterly award winner, the committee will take into consideration, not only the summation itself, but also what the club did in an effort to advance numismatics among it's members.

CLUB NEWS

Lakewood Coin Club:—Has moved to a new meeting place, the Lakewood CA at 5425 Centralia. At the July meeting the club's guest speaker was Ida Griffin who delighted her audience by a talk on "Rolls to Junk." Blaine iron won the award for best display. Two speakers from the Society for rnational Numismatics, known as the "Sinners" spoke to the members about ign coins.—Foster Hall

Garden Grove Coin Club:—One meeting recently was devoted to the discus- of the Indian Head Cent. Joe Steele narrated and Clyde Dunn exhibited a collection. At a later meeting the members viewed slides on fractional ency, narrated by Wm. Wisslead, which was implemented by the John Stoppel- th display of fractional currency. In addition Mr. Stoppelwerth talked postage np money. During a period of 14 years, he said, postage stamp money was ued to the amount of $269 millions, and it is presumed not more than a couple illion are still outstanding. At one meeting there was a program devoted to large copper cents. A complete date set of these, having 252 different eties was displayed by John Stoppelwerth who also told about the difficulties stablishing a mint and how hard it was to obtain the copper for these large s during the 1790's to 1816. O. E. Richards was named to fill a vacancy on Board of Directors.—John Stoppelwerth

Torrance Coin Club:—Joe Minkovich, originator of the Mission medals spoke recent meeting. It was after one of his many visits to the old California sions that it was decided his company would issue 22 mission medals, one hich would portray Fray Junipero Serra. He also displayed the original draw- of the Serra medal and the defaced dies used in striking it. At this same ting a panel consisting of Robert Axelrod, Jim Miladin, Harry Weber and V. Tritt held a question and answer session. At a previous meeting Eric Warner essed the club on the subject of "Numismatic History and Research." A ecial thanks" was extended to Mrs. Paul Youngker who made the sandwiches he evening's refreshments. (Editor's note: This is the club of which Richard k) Goodson is President. I should like to have hime, the other officers and bers accept my compliments for the interesting manner in which they conducted meeting, and the courtesies extended to me when I spoke at one of their meet- s recently.—Mrs. Virginia H. Dennis, Sec.

Los Angeles Coin Club:—With an average attendance of 250 at each meeting, club ranks first in the country. Its door prizes are unexcelled, and the erial offered at its auctions are a delight to the beginner and the professional. ally its speakers are numismatists of stature and they add considerable dimen- to the club's meetings, which are held on the first Friday evening of each th at 1329 S. Hope Street, Los Angeles. Recently, A. E. Nicholson gave a talk ounterfeit coins and currency, and at the August meeting, Leroy O. Borchardt ke on the subject "The American Challenge" (Type Coins). The exhibits layed at eacg meeting are many and varied.—Elizabeth L. Goodson

Downey Numismatists Coin Club:—Plans are being made for "A Full Year play Program" in order to overcome the lack of exhibits. The monthly publica- of the club states: "One of the basic motives in numismatics is the desire to uire, followed by the natural inclination to display what has been acquired." he October meeting a film on the subject "The Money Minters" will be shown. film was obtained from the International Nickel Co.—Art MacDonald

Compton Coin Club:—Henry Kraus, a member of the Ohio State Senate, recently ke on the subject "Numismatics of the Future". He is a collector and belongs to several coin clubs. He was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Verna Walker, a member of the Compton Club. Mr. Kraus stated he believes that money of the future will be of paper and base metals, but in the intermediate future money will be made of plastic, and later there will be no currency – credit cards will be used entirely. The club held its annual picnic recently at Recreation Park in Long Beach. Prizes were given for games and awards for outstanding services to the club. Attending the picnic were 137 members, friends and children.–K. H. Young Monterey Park Coin Club:–Seven years ago in May, 1955, the club was formed with 15 members, and since that time it has grown to 230. Recently the members heard a talk on "Collecting Coins from Circulation" by R. B. Carter. Displays included Lincoln cents from circulation, fractional currency, encased postage stamps. In a recent issue of a local newspaper the club received considerable space concerning coin collecting, club news and history.–Vera Schymos, Sec.

North American Aviation Stamp and Coin Club:–A film entitled "Washington and Its Natural Resources" was shown a recent club meeting. Mr. Blaine Milliron of the Compton Coin Club spoke at the October meeting on the topic, "What to Collect." A swap meet is held each month from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. In addition there are door prizes, displays and an auction. The club meets at the NAA Recreation Center, 5353 W. Imperial Highway.–Jean Gunter, Sec.

Culver City Coin Club:–The September meeting was addressed by one of its members, Bob Gamble, who spoke on the subject "Paper Money." His prize-winning display of currency augmented his talk, which turned out to be one of the year's highlights. At the October meeting, Mr. LeRoy Borchardt spoke on the "Honorable Lincoln Cent." The club, at previous meetings, has held panel discussions, and these will be resumed according to the club's program director, Mrs. Pauline Ney, because of the intense interest they have engendered.

Santa Barbara Coin Club:–Held its fourth annual convention at the Miramar Convention Hall, in September. The bourse was comprised of 60 dealers. Prizes and ribbons were given for displays.

Society For International Numismatics Announce:–Numismatists of the Los Angeles area are extended a most cordial invitation to attend, on November 15th, the second anniversary meeting. The Society was founded to provide an organization for the study and dissemination of knowledge in all branches of numismatics. Information regarding activities of the Society will be available to our guests. Our "get-acquainted" meeting will feature award-winning displays and brief talks by members of the Society, door prizes, and refreshments.

Time: 8:00 p.m., Thursday, November 15, 1962

Place: Postal Employees Hall, 1040 Pico Blvd., Santa Monica

A limited number of memberships will be open to numismatists of the local area who wish to take an active part in projects of the Society.

West Valley Coin Club:–Announces that on November 25th, it will hold its third annual Coin Show Case at the Women's Club in Reseda, according to Danny B. Crabb, bourse chairman. It will be an all-day affair, and open to the public from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Twenty bourse tables will be available, and those interested in procuring space should contact Danny Crabb at 13758 Victory Blvd., Suite 4, Van Nuys, California. The auction which will consist of only proof, uncirculated gold and key material will be conducted by George Bennett. Prize drawings will include four $5 gold pieces, one $10 gold piece, one $20 gold piece, and many other items.–Harold F. Donald, Corr. Sec.
